Spring cleaning isn't just for your home — it's a great time to tidy up your policies, too.

Log into the AAFMAA Member Center to make sure your contact information and beneficiary designation is up to date, and that you've uploaded your essential documents to your Digital Vault. This will help ensure your loved ones receive the benefits of your policy quickly and easily upon your passing.

Studies show people with a written financial plan say they feel more financially stable than those without a plan.

A majority of American families don't have a long-term financial plan. Do you fall into that group? If so, what's holding you back from feeling better about your finances?

Regardless of your age, stage or financial status, you can benefit from a financial plan — and getting one is easy and affordable with AAFMAA Wealth

Everyone has different goals for improving their personal finances, but most of it boils down to one basic idea: providing a comfortable life and financial security for themselves and their families.

If you've ever wondered how to save for emergencies, pay off debt, or save for larger life events such as retirement, college, or a home purchase, Military Saves might be the motivating factor you need to take small actions to improve your financial health.
