Understanding the Survivor Benefit Plan and Remarriage

The Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) is an important military benefit many retirees elect to provide an income for their dependents upon their death. However, it's important to note that if you have divorced and remarried since you originally enrolled, your new spouse's eligibility to receive the SBP annuity depends on your marital status and the election made when you first enrolled in the plan.

Permanent Life Insurance Coverage, Now With Guaranteed Acceptance

AAFMAA provides life insurance annual statements to all policy holders.

Your Annual Statement provides you with a summary of your life insurance policy activity and any changes from the previous calendar year.

If you purchased a new AAFMAA life insurance policy in 2019, you will receive your first annual statement in January 2020.

Now is a great time to review and update your contact information to ensure accurate delivery of your Annual Statement. Visit the AAFMAA Member Center to update your account preferences, or contact a member of our Policy Services team at 800-336-4538.

AAFMAA is now proud to offer a permanent life insurance product with guaranteed acceptance — you cannot be turned down. Veteran Survivor Plan is AAFMAA's newest life insurance policy that enables Members to get up to $25,000 of permanent coverage with no medical underwriting.
