

Charlene Wilde

Assistant Secretary

Charlene Wilde currently serves as the Assistant Secretary of AAFMAA, where she oversees contracting, support services, and information technology in support of the life insurance business. She brings experience as a Veteran Officer of the United States Army Chemical Corps and is proud to continue her service to the military community in her role with AAFMAA.

Charlene has completed the Fellow, Life Management Institute (FLMI®) program and earned the FLMI® professional designation. Charlene also holds a B.S. in Science from Pittsburgh State University and an M.S. in Science from Webster University.