3 Must-Do Maintenance Tips for Your AAFMAA Life Insurance Policy

Just like when you buy a home, you're planning for the long run when you purchase an AAFMAA life insurance policy—10, 20, or 30 years or even for life. So, much like a home, you should expect to perform some routine maintenance on your policy to make sure it performs the way you'd like down the road. Many changes can occur during the life of your policy, so you should consider these three things on a periodic basis:

What is a REAL ID?

AAFMAA Mortgage Services LLC (AMS)
Adds More States

AMS is now licensed to provide mortgages to Members in Minnesota and Georgia. If you or a member of your military community are seeking to build, buy, or refinance a home in any of our licensed states, we can help! Contact us today at 844-422-3622, or visit www.aafmaa.com/mortgage.

On September 25, 2019 Arlington National Cemetery (ANC)
released proposed changes to eligibility criteria.

These changes are intended to help ANC remain open and active well into the future. Learn more about the proposed implementation through ANC's website.

If you've recently renewed your driver's license, you may be familiar with the term "REAL ID." If not, we'll fill you in. The federal government established REAL IDs — which will replace your current state-issued driver's license —to meet a set of national minimum standards for state-issued driver's licenses. Beginning on October 1, 2020, TSA will require you to present a REAL ID to fly within the United States. Federal facilities, including military bases, will also require that you have a REAL ID to gain access.
